

Application for a Night-staying Permit

(No specified application form)

The following shall be fully observed:-

- (1) The vessel must have had Cat. 1 D.G. Removal Permits covering the days between the night to be required for the vessel's staying.
- (2) The permit is valid for a period from 1900 hours to 0700 hours on the next day.
- (3) The owner or agent of the vessel has to submit an application letter to explain the prevailing situation with valid justification/reason for the vessel to staying overnight at anchorage.
- (4) The required fee for the permit has to be settled prior to its issuance.