

MARINE DEPARTMENT NOTICE NO. 8 OF 2010

(Statutory Requirement & Related Information)

United Nations Sanctions (Democratic People's Republic of Korea)
(Amendment) Regulation 2010

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the United Nations Sanctions (Democratic People's Republic of Korea) (Amendment) Regulation 2010 will come into force on 15 January 2010.

2. The Amendment Regulation amends the existing sanctions against the Democratic People's Republic of Korea ("the DPRK") to implement decisions of the United Nations Security Council ("UNSC") in Resolution 1874. It also implements relevant decisions of the UNSC to expand the scope of sanctions against the DPRK under UNSC Resolution 1718 to include a list of additional items, material, equipment, goods or technology.

3. The Amendment Regulation provides for -

- an expanded scope of items subject to sanctions to include all arms and related material;
- prohibition against the procurement of technical training, service, assistance or advice from the DPRK related to the provision, manufacture, maintenance or use of any specified arms;

- prohibition against engaging in certain financial transaction related to the provision, manufacture, maintenance or use of any specified arms the supply, sale, transfer, carriage or procurement of which is prohibited; and
- prohibition against providing bunkering and other services to a ship registered in the DPRK under certain circumstances.

4. Ship managers, masters and agents of vessels should pay particular attention to the above prohibitions.

5. Further details may be found in the Government Gazette of 15 January 2010, in the website of Department of Justice (<http://www.legislation.gov.hk>) and in the website of Trade and Industry Department (<http://www.tid.gov.hk>).
