

Application for Towing an Open Deck Vessel Not Exceeding 8 Metres in Length Overall with No Person on Board
(For Class I Launches)

Guidance Notes

Attention

1. Class I launches may be permitted to tow an open deck vessel subject to the following conditions:
 - (i) The open deck vessel does not exceed 8 metres in length overall, will not carry any person on board while being towed and has a valid operating licence.
 - (ii) Proper lights for towing should be exhibited according to the requirements of the Merchant Shipping (Safety) (Signals of Distress and Prevention of Collisions) Regulations, Cap. 369N.
 - (iii) Mooring bitts installed should be rigid and properly maintained.
 - (iv) Ropes for towing should be of suitable strength and length in accordance with acceptable standards of the trade and good seamanship practice.
 - (v) Towing should be conducted under good visibility and favorable weather conditions. Towing activity should not proceed when strong monsoon signal or tropical cyclone warning signal No. 3 or higher is issued by the Hong Kong Observatory. If the weather deteriorates to the above situation during towage, the coxswain should exercise his/her seamanship to determine the most suitable arrangement for the voyage to ensure the safety of the passengers, launch and the tow.
2. The owner/agent should submit a declaration of compliance (a copy is at Annex of MDN 155/2010) with the above conditions together with the application for a Class I launch to tow an open deck vessel.
3. If the application is approved, the permission to tow will be endorsed in the Operating Licence of the Class I launch.
4. The owner/agent shall sign the application form and present the original copy of his/her identity card. If the vessel is owned by a company, the form shall be signed by the authorized officer of the company and affixed with the company seal/stamp.
5. If the owner authorizes another person to act on his/her behalf, the authorized person is required to present the original copy of his/her identity card and the certified true copy of the owner's identity card.
