Explanatory Note

The Maritime Safety Committee of the International Maritime Organization passed resolution MSC.491(104) on 8 October 2021. The resolution adopts amendments to Regulation 27 of Annex I to the International Convention on Load Lines, 1966, as modified by the Protocol of 1988 relating to it. The amendments align the requirements for certain hinged watertight doors with the requirements under the International Convention for the Safety of Life at Sea, 1974.

2. This Regulation amends regulation 27 of the Merchant Shipping (Safety) (Load Line) Regulations (Cap. 369 sub. leg. AD) to reflect the amendments adopted by the resolution.
